AI FORM INSTRUCTIONS

Question on Form

1. Corporation name	Pursuant to K.S.A. 17-7919, the name of a corporation shall contain: 1. One of the following words: "Association"; "church"; "college"; "company"; "corporation"; "club"; "foundation"; "fund"; "incorporated"; "institute"; "society"; "union"; "university"; "syndicate" or "limited"; 2. one of the following abbreviations: "Co."; "corp."; "inc." or "Ltd."; or 3. words or abbreviations of like import in other languages if they are written in Roman characters or letters.
2. Resident agent  Registered office	The resident agent is a person or entity that is authorized to accept service of process (lawsuits) on behalf of the business entity. This does not necessarily mean that the agent is being sued, but that the agent has the authority and responsibility to accept service of process on behalf of the business entity.  The registered office is the physical address where the resident agent is located.
7b. Stock	If the corporation will have the authority to issue stock, indicate the total numbers of shares, stock, class and par value. If applicable, state any designations, powers, rights, limitations, or restrictions regarding the stock or certain grants of authority to the board of directors.
7c. No stock	If the corporation will not have the authority to issue stock, indicate whether the conditions of membership are stated in the bylaws, or, if not, what those conditions are or other criteria for identifying members.
8. Incorporator(s)	An incorporator can be either an individual or a business. This person or business is responsible for the formation of the business created by this filing. The incorporator is not necessarily the owner, and his/her role in the business may cease as soon as the filing is made.
9. Directors	The directors' section must be completed if the incorporator's power terminates once the document is filed.
11. Signature(s)	If the incorporator is an individual, the signature must match exactly with the name listed in the incorporator's section (question 8). If the incorporator is a business, the signature of an individual authorized to sign for the business is required. Do not enter the business name in the signature field.

IRS Compliant 501(c)(3)
Article Provisions
Addendum

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
